PIKE ROAD ARTS and CRAFTS FAIR PRESS RELEASE

45th Annual Pike Road Arts and Crafts Fair
November 5, 2011

Enjoy a Fun Day in the Country!

Come spend a fall day in the country at the 45th annual Pike Road Arts and Crafts Fair from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, November 5, 2011. See over 250 artists and craft vendors display their beautiful and unique wares on the grounds of the historic Marks House (circa 1825). Shopping doesn't get any better than this.

Come for the shopping or come for the food! Enjoy delicious pulled pork BBQ sandwiches, homemade chicken salad, pimento cheese sandwiches, fried chicken and more. Sample homemade goodies from the Sweet Shop inside the Marks House – cakes, pies, candy, and cookies. Pick up a dozen melt-in-your-mouth Mocha Cakes - Pike Road's signature bite size sweet treat. Again, this year there will be a special Mocha Nut "Hut" which will sell only Mocha Nut Cakes.

This year children can experience special activities in the "Kids Korral"- face painting, free "make and take crafts" from Home Depot and other activities sure to please kids of all ages. Before they leave the fair all kids should tour the Pike Road Fire Department's Mobile Fire Safety House.

The Marks House Front Porch Contest this year will spotlight "Handcrafted Decorated Sweat Shirts" Check the website for rules and entry form.

Admission is $2.00 at the gate, with children under age 8 admitted free. Look for the signs off the Troy Highway (12 miles south of Montgomery) for directions to the Marks House, 890 Old Carter Hill Road, Pike Road, AL 36064.
